WHY WE GIVE

(A RECENT LETTER TO OUR CHURCH)

Emmanuel Baptist Church
Shreveport, Louisiana

Dear Friends,

Making life as “normal” as possible is one of the most important things you give to our children. Before coming into our care, their lives have been anything but normal. Bethany shares:

“Life before I got here was really hard. I struggled with parents with problems with addiction and alcohol. I had to take care of my brother a lot. I really looked forward to going to school because it was kinda like an escape from my life that was so chaotic. My time at the Children’s Home has been so awesome! I have so many opportunities here that I wouldn’t have had otherwise. It’s like they’ve given me hope. They’ve shown me that I can do things, that I have a chance at life, that I can be normal like other kids.”

Thank you for being a real difference-maker to children like Bethany!

With sincere appreciation,

Dr. Perry Hancock

Thank you

An update from your Pastor Search Committee ---- Last Sunday we met with Bro. Lane and he gave us wise direction and valuable resources as we prayerfully seek God's man for our church. We have set up a schedule to meet most Sunday afternoons at 4:30PM, or the following Wednesday at 5:00PM. We value your fervent prayers in the days ahead. In fact, we will be so grateful to those of you who set aside Sundays at 4:30 and Wednesdays at 5:00 to pray specifically for our meetings.
