A Ticket to Paradise

(Excerpts from an article from Charlotte, North Carolina)

Leaders in Charlotte, North Carolina invited 92 year old Billy Graham to a luncheon in his honor. Struggling with Parkinson's disease, Dr. Graham stepped to the podium: "I'm reminded today of Albert Einstein as he was traveling from Princeton on a train. The conductor came down the aisle punching tickets. Einstein looked in his vest pocket, trouser pockets, briefcase and in the seat beside him, but could not find his ticket."

"The conductor said, 'Dr. Einstein, we know who you are. I'm sure you bought a ticket. Don't worry about it.' As the conductor continued down the aisle punching tickets, he turned and saw the great physicist on his hands and knees looking under his seat for his ticket. The conductor rushed back and said, 'Dr. Einstein, don't worry, I know who you are, you don't need a ticket. I'm sure you bought one.' Einstein looked at him and said, 'Young man, I too, know who I am. What I don't know is where I'm going.'"

Billy Graham continued, "See the suit I'm wearing? It's a brand new suit. I bought it for this luncheon and one more occasion. This is the suit in which I'll be buried. But when you hear I'm dead, I don't want you to immediately remember the suit I'm wearing. I want you to remember this: I not only know who I am. I also know where I'm going.

May each of us have lived our lives so that when our ticket is punched, we don't have to worry about where we are going."

"Since you have been raised with Christ, set your hearts on things above where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Set your mind on things above, not on earthly things." Colossians 3:1-2
