We have found a great use for any "old" Sunday School Literature! It will be sent to missionaries around the world who will use it in their ministries. Please search your classrooms, homes and vehicles for outdated Sunday School Literature you can place in the box by the library. Thank you for supporting this worthwhile way to spread the Gospel!

"Neither snow nor rain nor heat nor gloom of night stays these couriers from the swift completion of their appointed rounds"

This motto was inscribed in 1914 on New York City's Main Post Office Building. The dedication of mail carriers has long been an inspiration to Americans. An excerpt from their website tells us, the Postal Service retains a large infrastructure which provides an indispensable foundation for communication between family, friends and businesses. Their service is to bind the nation together by the reliable delivery of mail.

As your Church Administrator, I am privileged to work with Godly volunteers who show up each day, come torrential rain or shine, to climb up on roofs, repair ceiling tiles, wet-vac carpets, monitor each thermostat, computer, copier and postage-meter through every power outage and still be willing to answer false security and fire alarms at 2AM. These folks maintain a large structure which provides an indispensable foundation of faith between family, friends and our business of spreading the Gospel. Their efforts bind our church facilities together to provide a beautiful place for us to gather each week. Whenever you see a rain cloud, stop and say a prayer of thanksgiving for the faithful volunteers the Lord has called to serve at Emmanuel Baptist Church. Their ministry is invaluable! Ms. Claire
