Forever Treasures

One of the greatest prayers I ever heard took place, not in a church or a home, but around a brush pile in the woods near my Grandma's house. One day as a boy, I was exploring through the woods with my dog and heard what sounded like people talking. When I got close enough, I was surprised to see a group of ladies from Grandma's church kneeling around an old brush pile, praying to God. As I strained to listen, without getting close enough to be discovered, I was startled to hear her praying for me! She was praying for her children and grandchildren.

From time to time, I still recall that Wood Pile Prayer Meeting and I praise God because I am still enjoying His answer to my Grandma's prayers. I believe that much of the joy, love and peace I enjoy today is due to the faithfulness of my grandmother and her Sunday School Class. They set an invaluable example that pointed me to Jesus Christ. My Grandma's log cabin in the woods of Tennessee had no electricity or indoor plumbing, and few material possessions, yet she gave her family the greatest gift of all. The priceless treasure she left the next generations was the Lord!

Today I am a grandpa who is blessed with five grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. I pray for my family daily, and He continues to work in their lives. I pray for the young men and women they may marry someday. I pray for the unborn children in their futures. I trust God to continue answering my prayers long after I am gone. "I will sing about the LORD'S faithful love forever; I will proclaim Your faithfulness to all generations with my mouth." Psalm 89:1

Do you have children, grandchildren, nieces, nephews, neighbors, or children in your church you can pray for on a daily basis? What a "forever treasure" you can leave for them!
