Forerunner

August 5, 2021

As we continued last Sunday in our sermon series on the armor of God (Eph. 6), we talked about the importance of the shield of faith in this world. Without faith, we noted, it is impossible to please God (Heb. 11.3). Faith is the key to victory in every spiritual battle.

But what I did not mention is the importance of being in a community of faith. This is what the church is – a family of believers active in the service of the Lord Jesus Christ!

In ancient times, Roman soldiers did not fight alone. They fought together against their enemies. They were united. As I studied the shield of faith, I learned that in the heat of the battle, Romans soldiers would raise their shields and stand together under them as they advanced against their enemies. This “turtle formation” gave them added protection on the battlefield.

Let us never forget that we stand together in the battles of life together. I thank God for my faith family, and I pray for us to stand together in these difficult times.

See you Sunday,
Bro. Chad

Emmanuel Church Family,

Thank you for all the calls, texts, cards, food, and support during Bo's yearlong battle with cancer. Much love was shown to Bo and me.

Thank you, also, for the wonderful family meal that was provided by all the ladies in the church and the bereavement committee.

A special thanks to Bro. Chad for always being there for Bo and being our friend.
