"Pride goes before destruction and a haughty spirit before a fall."
Proverbs 16:18

The story is told of two ducks and a frog who lived together happily in a farm pond. The best of friends, they played together in the water all year long.

During the hot summer months, however, the pond would dry up. This was no big deal to the ducks, because they could fly off easily to a new pond, leaving the poor frog behind.

One summer, however, the frog came up with an excellent idea. He asked the ducks to hold a stick between their bills so that he could hang onto it with his mouth when they flew off to another pond.

His plan worked out well – so well, in fact, that as they were flying along a farmer looked up in admiration and said, "Well, isn't that a clever idea! I wonder who thought of it?"

The frog, being proud of his bright idea, couldn't resist the temptation. "I did" he said, and with those words he fell to the ground.

As we prepare our hearts for this Thanksgiving season, let us never forget to praise God for all His blessings. We were created for His glory, and we must never think that we can achieve or accomplish anything on our own.

To God be the glory,

Bro. Chad
