Forerunner

February 24, 2022

We thank you, Lord, for bringing us back together in worship. But we look around and see some empty chairs and we miss seeing those familiar faces. We want them to know we haven't forgotten them. We love them and they are always in our hearts. We pray for the empty chairs...

We pray for the chairs that are empty because some of our friends have joined you in Heaven. We are not praying for their souls, because we are comforted knowing they are in Your Presence, singing praises and rejoicing before Your throne. But we pray for their loved ones who they left behind, the ones who miss them so greatly, who feel the void of their lives every day and every night. We pray Your Holy Comforter will wrap His arms around them and guide them through their hurt and loss.

We pray for the chairs that are empty because our friends are ill. We ask You to heal them and comfort them and strengthen their loved ones walking with them on this journey. We ask for Your Presence to fill their hospital rooms or bedrooms with a peace that passes all understanding.

We pray for the chairs that are empty because of deep hardships that this world has inflicted upon them. We pray for Your divine provisions and help. We pray for a renewed awareness that we have a Father Who wants His children to call Him, "Daddy," and bring every need, every fear, every desire to Him.

We pray for the chairs that are empty because events in this world promote uncertainty and the truth is not always easy to discern. We ask that You will pour Your love and truth into hearts and reassure us that we worship a Father Who wants us to ask Him for wisdom, and You will give it, generously.

We pray for the chairs that are empty because we've not yet met them, or we've not yet invited them -- we've not yet let them know there is a place in God's House ready for them. May Your love and compassion burn in our hearts and lead us to seek out Your children who need to know...

You have a chair for them.

Psalm 23 "The Shepherd With Me"

Many women know Psalm 23 by heart but haven't experienced its power in their lives. This beloved psalm can breathe new life into women who are weary and unsure of their next steps. It's more than a psalm that comforts in death; it gives confidence in life.

In this 7-session study by Jennifer Rothschild, gain fresh insight and encouragement from Psalm 23. Explore the depths of God's compassionate care while debunking the self-reliance myth. Learn how your vulnerability is not a liability because you can trust the Shepherd's goodness throughout each season of life.
